

BATTLE COMPANY BATTLE STANDARDS

Shown below are the current battle standards used by the 3rd, 4th and 5th Battle Companies.

Battle Companies often deploy as integral fighting units, subsequently these Company Standards are frequently seen in battle where they act as a rallying point as well as an exhortation to the Space Marines deployed. They may only be carried if the Company Master is present and leading at least two of his company squads.

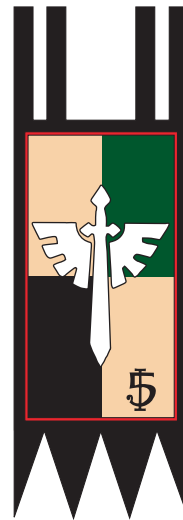

The standards are bestowed upon the Dark Angels by the Emperor himself and as such are regarded as a sacred relic. Carried by the most trusted Brother Standard Bearer, a task of both great hazard and honour [where their names are known they are shown.]
