

RAVENWING BATTLE STANDARDS

Battle Standards are carried by Ravenwing battlegroups of no more than three squadrons in strength, or where the Company Standard itself is forbidden to be carried due to a likelihood of capture or destruction. Besides being used in battle, the Standards would be displayed on HQ sites, captured structures etc etc. The honour of carrying it would be bestowed upon a veteran Ravenwing Brother, who would with his accompanying colour escort would not let the Standard out of his sight.

Shown below are a selection of known Ravenwing Battle Standards recorded in Tactica Historica [Vol 22//1V/82/7d].
